ODIYOOR GRAMOTHSAVA AN INTRODUCTION TO NATION BUILDING

The Birthday Celebration of Shree Shree Odiyoor Swamiji is renamed and observed as Gramothsava. Rajosing the prosperity of Indian villages. It is an unique social festival. It is a confluence of physical and meta-physical life. It is a festival that provides an introduction to nation building on the basis of a universal human religion(Vishwa Manava Dharma). It is a festival that inspires the kindling a spirit of a new lofty social phylosophy. It also aims at realising a revolution of self uplifting process, as a result of a meaningful event based on religion & spirituality.

The main positive programme of Gramothsava is the village cleanliness campaign. Shree Shree Swamiji has given a clear-cut format to the concept of village cleanliness. The campaign is held in almost all villages of Dakshina Kannada, Udupi & Kasaragod Districts. Large member of devotees of Shree Swamiji participate in these cleanliness campaign in village with great fervor and devotion. The Campaign which began in the year 2001 and has been going on every year, has created cleanliness an awareness among villages besides cleaning the environment it also has taken the shape of an event to inspire patriotism among them. Vanamahotsav programmes also are help in these village to enhance greenery and preservation of nature.

Preliminary to Gramothsava, sports meet are in the Shree Samsthanam premises, with special stress of folk games and sports of Tulunadu, and regional culture. As part of the celebration, beneficiaries are selected on merit and benefits cash and kinds provided by the devotees, to the needy and deserved.

The benefits extened at the main Birthday Celebration event include scholarships to talented students of secondary and degree classes, financial aid to construction of houses under the Navanikethan programme and for construction of toilets, grants for treatments needy patients, aid to religious centres and institutions engaged in social service activities and awarding prizes to outstanding Grama Samities. The festival the various events and help extended to the needy have given a global social perspective to the event. A mindset fortified by the ideal of "God of the entire mankind" alone can really be called society oriented. Such a society oriented personality becomes the beloved of one and all. This is the uniqueness and speciality of Odiyoor. That is why Odiyoor becomes close of people and touches their hearts.

This is love and nearness here. The all loving and large heartedness of Shree Swamiji is constants extending the lessons of the religion and spirituality. While glorifying the culture, the festivals here are based on religion and spirituality.
